PRIVATE SCHOOLS START BASEBALL

Schedules and Prospects of Season Made Public.

BIG RIVAL IN THE FIELD

National Cathedral School Promises to Make Things Interesting for Friends, Washington School for Boys, and Army and Navy Preps. Cleveland Park Team's Coach.

Washington's four big private schools promise to make things interesting on the diamond this season. Already the managers have compiled their schedules and practice has started.

Friends School, Washington School for Boys, and the Army and Navy Preps have a rival in the field in the National Cathedral School out on the Tenleytown road. Mr. A. C. Director, George Green turns out a nine up to the standard of his football, basketball, and track teams, the other private schools will have to go some to beat them.

Following is a brief story of each team, with the complete schedules:

Coach George Green, of the National Cathedral School for Boys' baseball team, started indoor practice last week, and has a squad of eighteen candidates trying for different positions on the team.

Following are names of the candidates: Infielders, Crane, Murphy, Pennybaker, Fixen (captain), and Clark; outfielders, Asford, Lamond, Jones, and Dunn; pitchers, Beggs, Small, and Mertz; catchers, Solke and H. Rust.

Manager Dunn has arranged a corking good schedule, including games with all the strong District teams and several well-known out-of-town schools.

The schedule:

March 25-Washington School for Boys.
March 26-Central High School.
April 2-Cleveland Park.
April 8-Washington School for Boys.
April 15-Central High School.
April 16-Technical High School.
April 22-Baltimore Country School, at National Cathedral School.
April 23-Western High School.
May 1-Woodbury Forest, at Orange, Va.
May 12-Western High School.
May 14-Eastern High School.
May 20-Baltimore Country School, at Baltimore.
May 21-Baltimore Country School, at Baltimore.

The Army and Navy Preps' baseball team this season will again be coached by Mr. Newberry, who turned out such a fine team last year.

Although the material is not quite as promising, the Preps can be depended upon to hold up their end. The candidates will be called out just as soon as the weather warms up.

Following is the schedule:

March 25-Business High School.
March 26-Georgetown Prep.
April 2-Business High School.
April 8-Kennettown Jr. A. C.
April 15-Baltimore Country School.
April 22-Georgetown Prep, at Georgetown.
April 23-Friends School.
April 29-Central High School.
May 6-Central High School.
May 13-Friends School.
May 15-Georgetown Prep.
May 20-Friends School.

Ben Hartig, catcher on last year's baseball team at the Friends Select School, has been elected manager of this year's team at that institution. Mack Baker, one of the team's best outfielders, has been elected captain.

Manager Hartig has nearly completed this season's schedule, which is to include games with all the high schools in this city, the Biles Electrical School, and the Friends School in Baltimore.

Six veterans from last year will again don the maroon and gray uniform this year, and nine new men have signified their intention of trying for the team. The last year's men are Baker, Roberts, Swartzell, and Koss, outfielders; Hartig, catcher, and Low, shortstop.

The team will be coached by Jack Brooks, assisted by George Lensen. The schedule as arranged so far is as follows:

March 25-Cleveland Park A. C.
March 26-Business High School.
April 1-Cleveland Park A. C.
April 8-University School.
April 15-Western High School.
April 22-Central High School.
April 29-Army and Navy Preps.
May 6-Army and Navy Preps.
May 13-Western High School.
May 20-Army and Navy Preps.
May 27-University School.
May 30-Baltimore Country School.
May 31-Baltimore Country School.
June 7-Army and Navy Preps.

K. D. Peachy, manager of the Washington School for Boys' baseball team, yesterday announced the schedule for this year, which will include games with both public and private institutions in this city and in Baltimore. Fifteen men, six of whom were members of last year's squad, have reported to Coach K. D. Perry, who has taken charge of the team.

According to Manager Peachy, the outlook this year is particularly encouraging. The last year's men who will come out again are Wilkins, who played second base; Stone, catcher; Sargent, third base; Peachy, first base; and Evans and Hyde, outfielders.

Evans, who pitched a little last year, is out for the place this year with a vim, and is doing well. He has speed and control, and is fast learning the curves. Chamberlain, a new man, shows up very good so far, and has an abundant supply of curves, with fast speed and control. Stone, who caught last year, is also trying his hand at the pitching.

Wilson, one of the best of last year's veterans, who made a name for himself in the school at second, was recently elected captain.

The schedule follows:

March 18-National Cathedral School.
April 6-National Cathedral School.
April 8-Eastern High School.
April 13-Western High School.
April 15-Western High School.
April 18-Circle Athletic Club.
April 22-Friends Select School.
April 27-Friends Select School.
April 28-Jefferson School, in Baltimore.
May 6-Circle Athletic Club.
May 11-Baltimore Country School, in Baltimore.
May 14-Eastern High School, in Washington.
May 18-Circle Athletic Club.
May 20-Baltimore Country School, in Washington.

The police in New York seem to have it in for certain clubs. They again showed their hand on Monday night, when they stopped the Young Otto-Eddie Murphy scrap.

GEORGETOWN BARS BYRD.

It was announced at Georgetown last night that "Curly" Byrd was cleared ineligible to represent the Blue and White in track, basketball, or football.

Byrd is at present a member of the first-year class in the Law School, and at odds with the A. U., which organization has barred him on charges of professionalism.

HOLD FIRST PRACTICE.

Coach Noonan Has Catholic/University Ball Tossers Out.

Baseball candidates at the Catholic University were out yesterday for a light work-out under Coach Noonan. Light work was done, such as tossing the ball to the batters. Coach Noonan intended to put the prospective players through a few stunts, but will wait until better weather conditions.

FOR SWIMMING TITLE.

South Atlantic Association to Hold Events in Baltimore.

Baltimore, Feb. 24.—The second annual swimming championships of the South Atlantic Association of the Amateur Athletic Union will be decided on April 15 and 16 in the tank of the Central Y. M. C. A. of this city. The entries will close a week before the event. Dr. J. E. Gately is chairman of the committee, other members of which are Prof. Thomas Cornelius, John P. Meany, Howard F. McBain, and C. L. Harding.

The Baltimore Athletic Club, which won the championship last year; the Central Y. M. C. A., and Doyle's Athletic Club will enter teams. A large number of entries from Washington is expected.

WOLGAST NAMES HIS TERMS

Demands $20,000 for Match with Freddie Welsh.

New Light-weight Boxing Champion Has Learned How to Go After the Money.

New York, Feb. 24.—Ad Wolgast, the new light-weight champion, evidently intends to make his mark in the ring by refusing to take part in another fight for some time. In pursuing this policy Wolgast simply takes a leaf out of Battling Nelson's book, for after the Dane won the title from Gans he did not enter the ring again for nearly eight months and then only to pick a mark in Dick Hyland.

Wolgast apparently has learned other things from Nelson, including the way to get the money. He demands a $20,000 guarantee to fight Freddie Welsh for the championship of the world.

It may be regarded as sportsmanlike when a champion forces a challenger to fight for almost nothing, but this was in vogue when Fitzsimmons received 65 percent of the gross, although he lost to Jeffries. Tommy Burns would not make a match with Johnson until he had received a guarantee of $20,000 regardless of the result, while the big negro's victory netted a trifle more than $5,000.

Wolgast was compelled to beg Nelson for a chance to win the light-weight crown. He would have been turned down. It is thought, together with Welsh, McFarland, Moran, and others had not been for the fact that the Dane underrated himself and also allowed his personal animosity to sway his judgment. So having won the chance of a lifetime to make a fortune and being a thrifty youth with practically no money, Wolgast, ring followers say, cannot be blamed for following the example set by Nelson.

It was rumored in the theater district today that a vaudeville firm had wired an offer of $1,000 a week to Wolgast, with a guarantee of a twenty weeks' engagement.

INDIANS MEET TIGERS.

Two Big Football Matches for Princeton This Year.

Princeton, N. J., Feb. 24.—Although the Princeton football management will make no definite announcement concerning a date with the Carlisle Indians next fall, it is understood that all arrangements have been made, and that it needs only the sanction of the faculty athletic committee to make the game an assured fact.

It will be scheduled for October 2, and will be the first time that the Indians have visited here since 1903, although the Tigers played them on the Polo Grounds, New York City, in 1907. This will make two big games in Princeton next fall, and it is Yale's turn to come here, and the report that the Indians will be the other main attraction is received with satisfaction by the undergraduates.

RETAIN OLD LINE-UP.

Chicago Cubs Only Team with Same Men on Duty.

The only team in the National League that will make its bow to the 1910 bleachers without a change in line-up will be the Cubs. There will, of course, be new faces with the Cubs, but, from present indications, it looks as if the same old line-up will greet the season of 1910.

The Pittsburgh Pirates have made an important change by substituting a new first baseman for Abstein.

The Giants, Phillies, Reds, and Cardinals have all made several changes, but the Cubs will start out with the old guard still doing duty at the same old stand.

The Cubs are starting out for a hard fight, and even the Pittsburgh people are praising the Cubs as they will start.

The winner of the Fred Welsh-Packey McFarland match will hustle back here in the hope of landing a date with Ad Wolgast, Welsh can do the weight, but 135 pounds is said to be the limit of Packey.

POTOMACS WILL BE FOR NAT'L ROWING REGATTA

At a special meeting of the Potomac Boat Club, held in the Riggs House last night, it was the unanimous vote of the thirty club members present to make a bid for the National Regatta, next fall, which promises to be the biggest event of its kind ever held on American waters.

President Charles G. Warden, of the club, was in the chair, and in a short talk to the members, outlined the plans for the coming campaign. When interviewed after the meeting the president stated that he had received assurances that Washington would get the big aquatic event, provided any reasonable inducements were offered, and the club proposed to go the limit in this respect, so that there is little doubt the event will be held on the Potomac, despite the fact that Boston, New York, and New Orleans are anxious to land the affair.

Last fall Detroit secured this plum, and it not only proved a big boost for that city, but attracted international attention. Two years ago Washington held the Middle States regatta, but has not held the national for thirteen years.

According to President Warden, the affair will last two days and attract not only the best athletes, sailors, dories, and four-oared crews of this country, but a number from the other side of the water.

In addition to the foregoing named business, the club moved that the chair appoint a committee to take charge of social events and interclub races during the coming season.

CORNELL IS ENTERED New York Collegians Booked for Georgetown Meet.

WILL RACE THE PENN TEAM Fleming, Washington Boy, to Come Along as Substitute—Coach Curley Byrd Enters Big Squad from Western High School, Including Three Relay Teams for Big Event.

After a hot fight between eight sturdy middle-distance runners, Cornell has finally announced the make-up of its relay team which is to race Pennsylvania at two miles in the Georgetown meet. So close was the time in the trials that the coach had great difficulty in choosing the regular four men.

Fleming, who formerly was the colors of the George Washington University, and now a member of the Indiana cross country team, was a contestant for a place, and although his time was fast, he was not chosen. He will be brought along, however, being first substitute on the relay. If Fleming does not run on the relay he will enter either the half or mile runs.

The Cornell two-mile relay will be made up of Taylor, Jones, Eversole, and Heuston, with Fleming, Hurst, Nixon, and De Gayles as substitutes. Paul, the intercollegiate champion miler and the fastest school boy middle-distance runner in the world to-day, barely beat Taylor at Buffalo recently, and the fight between them should get off the mark at the same second, should be exciting.

Western High School is going after honors with a vengeance, and Coach Byrd has entered three relay teams and twenty-one men in the individual events in an effort to bring first honors to the West End School.

Western's complete list of entries are as follows:

Senior relay, Pratt, Barclay, Bone, Tanner, Adams, and Hillyer; junior relay, Holden, De Witt, Larkin, and Uman; middle relay, Mayfield, Adams, Withers, and Knight; 440-yard scholastic, Stone, Webber, Tanner, Bone, Adams, and Pratt; 880-yard run, Church, Randolph, Tanner, Pratt, Adams, Hillyer; mile run, Hunter and Roby; 440-yard open, Bone; 600-yard novice, Barclay and Lascio; 500-yard open and scholastic, Hillyer, and 50-yard hurdles, Hillyer.

The ticket sale promises to be the biggest in years. The reserved seats are selling rapidly.

BASEBALL AT GEORGETOWN.

Cold Weather Causes Postponement of Outdoor Practice.

The cold and inclement weather of the past few days has greatly hampered baseball practice among the candidates at the Blue and Gray school, and the men have to be satisfied with light indoor work. The pitchers and catchers, nevertheless, are limbering up to a great extent, and when the warm weather sets in Coach Grillo hopes to have them in first-class condition for the opening games.

The men who have reported so far are Capt. Murphy, Balzer, Gray, Wymard, C. O'Connor, Sitterding, J. O'Connor, Gaynor, Cogan, Dugan, Hunt, Harbin, Thompson, Feenan, Eskinrud, Smith, Waldron, Menefee, Smith, West, Ford, and several others. Three new men who will try for pitchers and promises to make good are Geis, Connelly, and Flannery. The latter two played on Mount St. Mary's nine last year, of which Connelly was captain.

Manager Brown has not, as yet, been able to fill either the date of April 30 left vacant by Washington and Lee canceling, or the open date of May 27. Work on skimming the diamond will commence in a few days.

PEORIA CLUB LOSSES.

Claims that Nationals Tampered with Pitcher Hovlik.

Special to The Washington Herald. Cincinnati, Feb. 24.—At the meeting of the national commission here to-day the Peoria club got itself in hot water by charging that the Washington American club had tampered with Player Hovlik, but the charges were not sustained and the Peoria club owners will be censured.

Hovlik was purchased outright by the Nationals last August, but turned back for a little more experience after pitching two games. He will report with the other twirlers at Norfolk next week.

The Phillies left yesterday afternoon for the South and a big crowd of fans saw them off.
